

Catalog/Internet Ordering

Please be aware that ordering prescriptions over the Internet can be misleading.

- Σ Most pharmaceutical companies do NOT offer any guarantee, warranty or otherwise stand behind products purchased from these sources. They regard most internet pharmacies as “unauthorized distributors” of their products.
- Σ We cannot be sure of the content, quality, safety, or effectiveness of products purchased from these sources.
- Σ Make sure the company you choose is properly licensed with the Colorado Board of Pharmacy. www.dora.state.co.us/pharmacy/Index.htm; “Automated License Verification”. You may also check with the National Association of Boards of Pharmacy (NABP). “Internet Pharmacies”.
- Σ If a full bottle of medication is purchased, be sure the ORIGINAL labeling is intact, including the NADA (New Animal Drug Approval).

Informed Consent

The above has been discussed with me regarding the ordering of my pet's medication over the Internet or through a catalog.

I understand the above, have been given the opportunity to ask questions, and agree to assume all liability and risk associated with ordering and administering these medications to my pet, releasing Friendship Hospital for Animals, its doctors and staff from any complications related to receiving medications purchased from the above listed sources.
